Frederick Health Names Employees of the Year

Frederick, MD – June 16, 2023, Frederick Health, the largest healthcare provider in Frederick County, is pleased to announce its Employees of the Year. The 2023 winners are:

Jeff Weaver, Supply Chain Manager, was named one of the 2023 Employees of the Year. Jeff has worked at Frederick Health for six and a half years. Jeff is responsible for ensuring that the supplies essential to Frederick Health's team get to where they need to be. His ongoing commitment to excellence and positive leadership are routinely displayed. Jeff can turn unenviable situations into positive outcomes with a skillful, collaborative approach and works to keep Frederick Health's network of facilities supplied and operational.

"No matter what challenge, Jeff always meets it with a smile. He tackles every day with a "can do" attitude. He has cultivated a positive environment and manages his team with a compassionate approach while maintaining high expectations of accountability and reliability," said Mike Ewing, Director of Supply Chain with Frederick Health.

Dr. Kathy Troupe, a Nurse Practitioner with the Comprehensive Care Center, was also named as a 2023 Employee of the Year. Kathy has worked for Frederick Health for 12 years. Kathy's instrumental work is displayed at Frederick Health's new Comprehensive Care Center. She treats numerous patients and health conditions with compassion, knowledge, and expertise. Kathy excels at working closely with patients to help them better understand their personalized care and treatment options.

"Kathy is a wonderful and compassionate provider," said Dr. G Johnson Koilpillai, Medical Director of the Comprehensive Care Center. "She has been serving the Frederick community for years and is absolutely dedicated to her patients. She goes above and beyond daily."

Congratulations to both Jeff and Kathy. Frederick Health is honored to have you on the team!
